

Tulsa County Commission's Vision2 tax scheme

VS.

City of Tulsa's money for City of Tulsa's vision

13 year 0.6 cent county sales tax	13 year 0.6 cent city sales tax
City of Tulsa gets only $400 million	City of Tulsa gets $553 million
$254 million earmarked for AA bailout	No earmark for AA bailout
County can veto how City of Tulsa wants to spend remaining $146 million	City of Tulsa has full control over spending $553 million
Hastily thrown together list of projects designed for short-term political gain; no strategic planning	Carefully considered, strategic projects based on city's comprehensive plan and capital improvements plan
New county-controlled trust to interfere with City of Tulsa-owned airport facilities	City retains full control over City of Tulsa-owned airport facilities
Almost $100 million wasted on interest and bond fees	Pay as you go: No money wasted on interest and bond fees
WRONG FOR TULSA	RIGHT FOR TULSA

Mayor Bartlett:

Why are you giving up $153 million that could pay for roads, bridges, parks and other city capital improvements?

Why are you giving up city control over city assets?
